Kart Race For Monza

A 10-hour endurance kart race will be run around the famed Monza Grand Prix track. It will be the second time such an event will have taken place.

A maximum of 60 corporate and private teams will be allowed to compete and teams can have from six to ten drivers. The race will take place on 28 and 29 July next year.

The race track will be 5.3 kms long and almost the entire Monza circuit is used, plus some additional bends. The following photos are from this year's event.
